VETERAN OFFICER RETIRES

If he ever walks back into the Everett Police station again he won't be wearing a badge or a gun.

After serving more than 28 years, veteran officer Edward Gibbons retires as of Saturday.

"Eddie has been a dedicated professional and his presence will be missed" stated Chief Steven Mazzie.

Gibbons joined the department in October of 1983 and graduated from the Boston Police Academy in February of 1984.

Gibbons served his 28 plus years as a member of the patrol division, with most of that time spent working on the street in a marked cruiser.

Thank you Officer Eddie Gibbons (retired) for your selfless service and dedication to the city and the commonwealth.

In his free time Eddie plans on fishing and riding his Harley Davidson Motorcycle.
