K-9 SEARCH AT EVERETT HIGH SCHOOL

The Everett Police Department, in partnership with the Everett School Department, and several other Massachusetts Law Enforcement Agencies conducted a K-9 search of the new Everett High School.

The goal of this proactive search is to ensure a safe environment for students, faculty and other staff of the Everett High School.

Participating agencies include K-9 Units from the Everett Police, Malden Police, Boston Police, Lowell Police, North Andover Police, Tewksbury Police, Middlesex County Sheriff Department, Suffolk County Sheriff Department, Plymouth County Sheriff Department and the Massachusetts State Police. A representative from the Middlesex County District Attorney's Office was also present.

"Drugs and weapons are out there" stated Chief Mazzie of the Everett Police. "We will use whatever tools and resources that are available to us to ensure a safe learning environment".
