DRUG STING NETS NINE ARRESTS

Everett Police Drug Task Force sting operation ended with nine arrests, the seizure of ten grams of cocaine and forfeiture of three motor vehicles.

Everett Police working in conjunction with the Malden Police, Saugus Police, Massachusetts State Police, Middlesex District Attorney's Office and members of the ATF, FBI and DEA conducted multiple arrests in Everett, Malden and Saugus on drug warrants.

The operation code-named "Neighborhood Crack-Down", has been an active investigation for the last three months, and ended Thurs. Jan 31st with nine arrests.

Undercover officers have been working tirelessly identifying the dealers, making purchases of crack cocaine and documenting the events leading up to the issuing of the warrants and subsequent arrests. "The cooperation between agencies has been excellent," stated Sgt Paul Strong of the Everett Police Department.

"Thursday's arrests are another example of the interagency coordination that goes on regularly" stated Chief Steven Mazzie of the Everett Police Department. "Coordinated efforts, like this, allow us to pursue investigations that cross jurisdictional boundaries."
