ASSAULT INVESTIGATION

Everett Police are investigating an Assault and Battery with a Motor Vehicle that occurred on Third Street around 10:30 today.

Injured was Walter Thompson, 41, of Peabody, who is in stable condition and pending release from Mass General Hospital.

Thompson told police that he had observed two Hispanic males inside his motor vehicle, which was parked in the lot behind United Rentals at 354 Third Street. He approached his vehicle and was then struck by the suspects with that vehicle as they fled the scene.

A passing motorist observed Thompson's vehicle which had a smashed windshield and blood on it. The motorist flagged down Chelsea Police Officer Edward Nofle.

The vehicle was recovered and is being processed for evidence. The two male suspect fled, no further information is available.

If you have any information about this crime, contact the Everett Police Department at (617) 389-2120.
