DRUG DEALER ARREST

Everett Police arrest a drug dealer who was living and dealing from his residence at 381 Ferry Street in Everett.

Stephen Sabella, 63, of Everett was arrested on September 15th as a result of an on-going investigation into drug activity at 381 Ferry Street, a property managed by the Everett Housing Authority.

Detectives assigned to the Everett Police Special Investigations Unit, began the investigation after receiving complaints from residents that Sabella may be dealing drugs out of his apartment.

An undercover officer made arrangements with Sabella to meet and make a purchase of Percocets. The undercover officer, made the purchase and Sabella was placed into custody a few minutes later by detectives. Recovered were the five pills sold to the officer and the $50.00 used in the transaction.

Sabella was arraigned on September 16th at Malden District Court, on charges of Distribution of a Class C (Percocet) Substance.

The charges are allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
