ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Everett Police arrest four males for the early morning armed robbery of an Everett man near Glendale Park.

Arrested were Abdelfetah Abdella, 21, of Boston; Nurelen Befekadu, 18, of Roxbury; David Guante, 18, and James Johnson, 18, both of Dorchester.

The victim, whose name is being withheld, was approached by three males one of them carrying a cane just after 2:00 am this morning. The males later identified as Befekadu, Guante and Johnson engaged the victim in small talk and then Johnson threatened the victim with the cane. Guante and Befekadu both grabbed the victim and forcibly removed a 24kt gold chain from the victims neck and a 24kt gold bracelet from the victims wrist.

The suspects then fled in a grey Honda that was being driven by Abdella, which officers later found near the Store 24 on Chelsea Street.

The four suspects were arrested after positive identification by the victim; the bracelet was recovered as well as the cane used in the robbery.

The suspects will be arraigned today in Malden District Court on Armed Robbery charges.

The charges are allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
