UNARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Everett Police arrest two males and are looking for a third in an unarmed robbery of an Everett man on Chelsea Street.

Arrested were Amin Akib, 23, and Oussam Rhim, 20 both of Everett, who were charged with unarmed robbery and assault and battery on the 24 year old Everett victim

The victim, whose name is being withheld, was approached by three males around 10:00pm Tuesday. The males later identified as Akib and Rhim and an unknown third male threatened him, Akib punched the victim in the face and the other males assisted in the theft of a cell phone and $100.

The victim ran into Store 24 followed by the suspects, who than fled the scene, after a brief entrance into the store. The police arrived and with the assistance of a witness and the victim were able to make identification of two of the suspects, who were found a short time later walking on Ferry Street. The third unidentified male is described as a Hispanic male wearing a black jacket.

The suspects will be arraigned today in Malden District Court for Unarmed Robbery charges and Assault and Battery.

The charges are allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
