SOBRIETY CHECKPOINT

Everett Police working with the Massachusetts State Police conducted a field sobriety checkpoint on the Revere Beach Parkway just after midnight on November 29th.

The checkpoint was staffed by 15 Massachusetts State Troopers and six Everett Police Officers. Drivers were briefly stopped on the Revere Beach Parkway, between Lewis Street and Second Street, and questioned by a trooper. If the driver appeared to be intoxicated or there was a smell of alcohol the driver was directed to pull into a parking lot and take a series of field sobriety tests.

There were a total on nine arrests on suspicion of operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol.
