SUSPECT ARRESTED

Everett Police arrest a juvenile for stabbing two other juveniles in front of Everett High School on Monday.

The incident occurred around 5:30pm, the male suspect who is 16 years old, was arrested at the scene by police.

The two juvenile male victims, whose names are withheld, told police they had gotten into a fight with the suspect, who then pulled a knife cutting one of the victims across the stomach and then stabbing the other victim in the side.

The injuries to the victims were non-life threatening but as a precaution were treated at the scene and one of them was transported to the Whidden Hospital, treated and released.

The knife used in the incident was recovered at the scene.

The juvenile was arraigned today in Cambridge Juvenile Court.
