BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT APPREHENDED

An off-duty Everett Police Officer effected the arrest of a suspect who had just robbed the Everett CO Operative Bank, at 419 Broadway around 11:15 am today.

Robert Saltman, 55, who is homeless, was arrested by Officer Brian Murray, 40, a ten year veteran of the department.

Murray who has been off-duty due to a line of duty shoulder injury was on Victoria Street, when he observed Saltman running from the rear entrance of the bank. Murray was on the phone talking to another officer and asked for assistance.

Saltman was placed in custody and Murray who re-injured his shoulder was taken to Cambridge Hospital for observation as a precautionary measure

Saltman is also suspected of robbing the same bank on January 7th.

Saltman is scheduled to be arraigned today in Malden District Court.

The charges are allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
