VETERAN OFFICER RETIRES

Everett Police Chief Steven Mazzie announced the retirement of a long serving member of the department.

Officer Lawman Johnson retires after thirty-four years of service to the citizens of Everett and the Commonwealth as a member of the Everett Police Department.

“His (Johnson’s) retirement marks the end of an era” stated Mazzie. “He will be missed by the department and the community.”

Johnson began his career as a patrolman in March of 1975. During his career he also served as a detective assigned to the criminal investigations unit.

Johnson is the first retired officer who will be eligible to work paid details as a Special Police Officer under legislation passed in February of 2008. (Chapter 24 of the Acts of 2008)
