FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE ARRESTED

Everett Police arrest a wanted parole violator from New Hampshire Thursday evening in the Norman Street area.

Robert Silvia, 42, of Derry NH was arrested for an outstanding parole warrant from NH as well as new charges related to the stolen motor vehicle he was driving.

Everett Police Detective Scott Stallbaum, received information that Silvia was living at 69 Norman Street and in possession of a stolen Jeep Wrangler.

Stallbaum in an unmarked vehicle observed Silvia leave Norman Street in the Jeep, and assisted by Officers Greg Derosa and Brian Herbert, in a marked police cruiser, stopped the suspect. Silvia was placed in custody without incident.

Silvia was arraigned today in Malden District Court, for Receiving Stolen Property over $250 (Jeep), Operating without a License, and Fugitive from Justice (NH Parole Warrant).

Silvia is also a person of interest in several business breaks in Everett, those cases are still under investigation.

All charges are allegations and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
