

EVERETT POLICE DEPARTMENT MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact Information:
Capt Richard Basteri
(617) 394-2369
richard.basteri@ci.everett.ma.us

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 29, 2009

Everett Police Arrest Six

Everett Police Chief Steven A. Mazzie announces the arrest of six in unrelated drug and prostitution investigations. Chief Mazzie is committed to keeping the pressure on drug distributors as the summer kicks off. He encourages residents to get involved by reporting suspicious activity in their neighborhoods. Residents can report drug activity anonymously by calling (617) 389-DRUG.

Fronge F. Pierre, 30, of 4 Jackson Gardens, Cambridge was arrested on June 17th for the sale of drugs to an undercover officer.

Detectives assigned to the Everett Police Special Investigations Unit and the Malden Police Drug Unit arrested Frongé F. Pierre after an undercover officer arranged and purchased crack cocaine from him at Florence St. Park. Frongé F. Pierre was additionally found in possession of (8) bags of crack cocaine and (1) bag of powder cocaine. He was charged and arraigned for the Distribution of a Class B substance, Possession with the intent to distribute a Class B substance and Possession with intent to distribute a Class B substance in a park zone.

In an unrelated incident, Harold Rodriguez, 42, of 175 Vine St. Everett, Stacey Kay Russo, 28, of 175 Vine St., and Rafael E. DeLarosa, 32, of 85 Lawton St. Lynn were arrested June 19th as a result of a drug investigation on Vine St.

The Everett Police Special Investigations Unit along with the Malden Police Drug Unit conducted an investigation after receiving several complaints of possible drug activity at 175 Vine St.

Surveillance was conducted and the officers observed Stacey Kay Russo leave 175 Vine St. and meet and purchase heroin from a male later identified as Rafael E. DeLarosa. Both parties were followed, stopped and arrested. Stacey Kay Russo was charged with Possession of a Class A substance and Rafael E. DeLarosa was charged with Distribution of a Class A substance and Distribution of a Class A substance in a school zone. Additionally, Harold Rodriguez was arrested for seven outstanding warrants when found at 175 Vine St. with his and Ms. Russo's two minor children.

On June 24th the Everett Police Special Investigations Unit and the Malden Police Drug Unit arrested Harold B. Pierre, 35 of 295 Windsor St. Cambridge for Possession with intent to distribute a Class B substance, Distribution of a Class B substance in a school zone, giving false information to a police officer and two outstanding warrants.

An officer acting in an undercover capacity contacted Harold B. Pierre and was directed to Raymond St. where he purchased (3) bags of crack cocaine. Officers placed Pierre under arrest and when booked he gave a false name. The detectives found through their investigation his true identity and that he frequently stays at 82 Walnut St. Pierre's room was searched and an additional (16) bags of crack cocaine and (1) bag of powder cocaine were found.

Also on June 24th, the Everett Police Special Investigations Unit while working an unrelated drug investigation arrested Charlyne M. Simms, 43, of 366 Broadway for Engaging in sex for a fee.

An undercover officer observed female walking the Glendale Square Area that he had recognized from the past waving and smiling at passing motor vehicles.

Another undercover officer was contacted and he approached the female on foot and engaged her in conversation. During the conversation the female offered the officer sex several times for $20 dollars. Officers placed the female under arrest where she was charged and arraigned in Malden District Court.

If you would like to comment on this project please do so by via email at richard.basteri@ci.everett.ma.us

Captain Richard W. Basteri
(617) 394-2369

###