CITIZEN CALL LEADS TO TAGGING ARRESTS

Everett Police arrest two persons who were caught in the act of tagging a building on Bucknam Street on May 15th.

Brahim Nadir, 18, of Everett and a 15 year old juvenile male (name withheld) were apprehended by police after they were spotted by a citizen who called the police

Charles Goyetche, a resident of Bucknam St, observed four males standing by the wall at the Bright White Laundry located at 167 Bucknam St. Two of the males were writing on the wall with markers.

The two suspects were placed into custody, without incident and charged with tagging related offenses. The other two males, who were also juvenile, were released at the scene. Recovered from the back pocket of the juvenile arrestee were two black markers used to make the tags.

Nadir was arraigned in Malden District Court of Friday, and the juvenile will be arraigned on Wednesday in Cambridge Juvenile Court.
