VOLUNTEERS IN POLICE SERVICE

The Everett Police Department is looking for a few good volunteers. Have you ever wanted to volunteer in your community? Do you have a special skill or training that would benefit the city? Would you like to learn something new while helping your friends and neighbors? Now is your opportunity to get involved to make the City of Everett a safer community to live and work in.

The department is looking for volunteers, willing to donate a few hours a week, in a variety of areas. Volunteer opportunities include; Administrative assistance, Crime analysis and mapping, Crime prevention, Neighborhood watch, Disaster assistance, Translation, Graffiti removal, Special events, Speakers bureau, Internships and Auxiliary police to name a few.

Volunteer applications are available on the Everett Police Department website <http://www.everettpolicema.com> or at the police station.
